EAGEN, C.J., and LAURENCE, J., concur. NOTES [1] "§ 211.06. Registration of fictitious names ¶ Notice to abate. ¶ Any person, firm, or corporation using a fictitious name in contracting or in the doing of business shall register the same in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said contracting or doing of business is done or where the contract is to be performed, and shall notify the clerk of such registration at least thirty days before beginning to do business under a fictitious name. "If any such person, firm, or corporation, not having registered his or her or its name or any part thereof, is about to do business under a fictitious name, he or she shall cause to be registered a notice containing the name and address of the person, firm, or corporation, and such fictitious name. The notice shall be signed by the person, firm, or corporation, and shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the name is to be used, within thirty days after the first use of such fictitious name. "If such notice is not so filed the contracting or doing of business shall be a fraud on the part of the person, firm, or corporation doing such business, and such person, firm, or corporation, as well as his or her or its agents, servants, or employees, may be prosecuted for such fraud, and his or her or its right to do business under a fictitious name may be taken away." [2] This case was tried at the same time as one involving a similar issue and the same parties. The other case is a companion case, and we hereby adopt our opinion in that case in this case.
