According to the World Tourism Organization, was ranked fifth in the world in 2015. It is the second destination for the Europeans after London. The North Europeans come to the place to fall in love, the South Americans to drink and the East Europeans to shop. Cartagena has a great variety of beaches, from the cosmopolitan Puerto Colombia, the nearby and little known Isla, the most beautiful of the Caribbean coast, the Loma Hermosa and the tourist areas. Puerto Colombia Puerto Colombia is one of the most privileged places for tourism in the country. It has a cosmopolitan atmosphere, it is located next to the historic colonial quarter, Isla, great service in the hotels, excellent tourist infrastructure, nightlife, restaurants and bars. Puerto Colombia is located on the Pacific side of the city, near the entrance to the bay. The history of the area goes back to the time of Spain, when there was a settlement called Mirador. With the declaration of Independence in 1810 the city became part of the Captaincy General of Venezuela, and in 1819 Puerto Colombia was founded with the name of El Dorado. In 1823 it was given the status of capital, and in 1828 it became a municipality, since then the town has changed very little. Isla Isla is a small town located in the Caribbean area of Cartagena. It is famous for being the place where the first cargo of bananas, processed in the city, arrived. At that time there were no hotels in the 2d92ce491b
