Countdown Timer plays at a much slower rate than the original Timer, but it plays an exciting game about the numbers appear again. The game can be played in two modes; "Numbers" or "Count Up." Each mode has a different highlight color and different sounds for numbers on the scoreboard. In the "Numbers" mode, Press SPACE BAR once to choose the mode, and then press SPACE BAR once to choose the mode, and then press SPACE BAR once to choose the mode, and then press SPACE BAR once to choose the mode, and then press SPACE BAR to begin the countdown. The following example shows how the countdown would behave if the user chose to count up to 300 seconds: 1 2 5 10 15 20 30 60 95 150 300 495 700 The maximum number of seconds allowed is 999. The game plays the digits to the "end" of the count. At the end, the game will play a sound. This sound can be customized so that the user can change it to something else. Once the sound plays, the screen will blank (after its turned off) until the time expires. A more advanced version exists which can be found on the file downloads area. However, at the moment, it does not have the sounds and the end graphics.
