He merely argues that the district court erred in applying the subsection applicable to public officials. This is a different argument from the one that he has made in the district court, the district court, and this court. See, e.g., App. to Br. at 32-35, 40-41; Dist. Ct. Docket No. 119-10-18-CR-21, Appellant’s Br. at 7-8. Even if we construed the issue in Mr. White’s brief as the district court construed it, we could not review this issue. In his initial brief on appeal, Mr. White argued that the district court erred in denying him a minor-role reduction. He also argued that the district court erred by not increasing his offense level for obstruction of justice and by not increasing his offense level based on the amount of money involved in the offense. He does not include any arguments as to the district court’s application of the guidelines to the facts of the case, only those two arguments. And, he does not argue that the district -4- court applied the wrong guidelines in sentencing him. 1 Under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 28(a)(
