DesktopX With License Key Free

DesktopX is a comprehensive solution for your desktop. It comes with lots of objects, many of them are installed by default, and more objects can be downloaded from the Internet. Some objects are designed to enhance the productivity of your computer, such as Calendar, Clock or Tasks. Others, such as Desktop, Pictures or My Computer, add extra functionality or lead to other applications, as they can open your mailbox, show pictures or let you open your My Computer. Desktops allow you to save, organize and synchronize your desktop objects. Choose from different themes, use the built-in widget for easy access to the most used functions or use the new Desktop Builder to build your own. Along with its large number of objects, DesktopX comes with a Desktop Helper widget, which provides the user with a multilingual interface to create new desktops, load widgets and gadgets, open widgets, objects and gadgets and modify existing ones. With DesktopX you can easily change the desktop appearance, including desktop icon, colors and the taskbar, but also more complex features such as the desktop resolution or the desktop size. A wide variety of skins can be applied to the desktop. Moreover, a photo frame or an object can be attached to the desktop icon in order to change its content. You can also add a clock or a widget to your desktop to know when the next appointment is. Multiple documents can be opened, such as a photo, an Excel spreadsheet, a Word document, a PDF or an image. Further, a weather report can be displayed as a gadget, as can be a clock, calendars, a notebook, a unit converter, a browser, a calculator and many other widgets and gadgets. DesktopX also allows you to create and synchronize multiple desktops, making it easy to work on different files, applications and projects at the same time. In conclusion, not only can you customize the desktop colors and the desktop appearance, but you can add objects that enhance your productivity, such as a calendar, a notebook, a to-do list or a unit converter. place them wherever you want, offering easy access to your screen. There are several object types included in the pack, which include a collection of games, calendars, clocks, picture frames, search widgets, to-do lists, a unit converter, a weather monitoring tool, a fishy and a mail client. Another feature that you will enjoy is the ability to customize the desktop background image or color. Now you can keep track of all your mail with a new customizable mail client that includes an option to search your inbox on top of your desktop. DesktopX is a free application, which means that you can keep it forever. If you are still using a trial version of the program, you can convert it to a full version with a single click. If you prefer to try it for free, the program is available for Windows XP, Vista and 7 from the developer's website. However, before using it, we advise you to test the application's latest build.
